

Sexual Violence Prevention and Supports

Prevention Innovation Grant Guidelines

Introduction

Sexual violence continues to remain hidden and victims are frequently blamed and stigmatized. Government is committed to working with community partners to raise public awareness, enhance supports and stop sexual violence from happening in the first place.

Although it can sometimes seem too large to solve, sexual violence is preventable. With multiple organizations, groups and communities directing prevention initiatives, the responsibility of preventing sexual violence is shared by the collective community. With the long-term goal of reducing sexual violence, we must focus our approaches on ways to stop sexual violence from happening in the first place. This is called primary prevention.

Primary prevention approaches work to change environmental factors and social norms known to contribute to sexual violence (ex. sexism, media and marketing practices, technology, harmful use of alcohol, etc.), while also promoting healthy relationships, consent and fostering safer spaces and strong communities.

Innovation is about bringing fresh ideas and creativity into sexual violence prevention work. Let's experiment with new ideas, use technology, mobilize community, and try things that have not been done before. Get your creative juices flowing!

Grants Basics

- The maximum amount that can be requested is $5,000.
- This is a one year grant only; it is not renewable.
- Groups applying for funding must be registered and in good standing with the Nova Scotia Registry of Joint Stocks Companies, and have existed for a minimum of 2 years. For those who do not meet this criteria, a community partner is required.

About your proposal

You will have a better chance of getting a grant if your idea does at least one of the following:

- Is led by and for the following communities: African Nova Scotian, Indigenous, Immigrant, Persons with Disabilities, LGBTQIA2S+
- Uses technology.
- Includes peer-to-peer approaches.
- Engages youth, where youth are involved in leadership, decision making, planning and organizing.

When you apply

Make sure that your grant application:

1. Describes your idea for your sexual violence prevention project using the Prevention Innovation Fund Grant Application Form and shows how it will help prevent sexual violence in your community or at your school.
2. Shows that your idea is new, creative, has never been tried before in your area and/or has never happened before at all.
3. Includes a budget of how the funds would be spent.

Note : Please only use the PDF forms provided. Word documents will not be considered.

Organizational Support

If you are NOT a registered organization, please include:

- 2 letters of support from a community leader, teacher, mentor, etc.
- The signature and contact information of a community partner who will support the work of the project and administer the funding.

Information for Community Partners

- The community partner must be registered and in good standing with the Nova Scotia Registry of Joint Stocks Companies, and have existed for a minimum of 2 years.
- Where community partners are involved, the liability for the funds rests with the community partner.
- There is no conflict if an organization wishes to submit an application as well as be a community partner to youth or a non-registered group.

Roles and Responsibilities

Each group receiving funding will:

- Receive, sign and return a Funding Agreement with the Department of Community Services, agreeing to the terms and conditions of the Grant.
- Submit a year-end report to demonstrate activity outcomes. A report template will be provided by the Department of Community Services.
- The project leader(s) and community partner will develop a work plan and meet at least once every three months to ensure the project is on track and provide any necessary support.
